

THE MAPAS MAGICAL MOSAIC OF MARVELLOUS MUSICAL FUN!

Please enjoy our next edition of 15 exciting musical activities for you and your family to take part in and enjoy.

Learn the song 'Sing', MAPAS have created two lessons.

Search: YouTube Music and Performing Arts Salford MAPAS

Check out www.music-playtime.com There are lots of free music activities for ages 5-7.

Listen to the MAPAS Big Band, what instruments can you hear?

Search: YouTube Music and Performing Arts Salford MAPAS

Sing Up have launched a home schooling resource, check out.

Google: Sing Up at Home

Create a drum kit using pots and pans. Check out 'MAPAS Top of the Pots'.

Search: YouTube Music and Performing Arts Salford MAPAS

Create a rap to fit with music created on the app 'Launchpad'.

Create your own Body Percussion piece.

Search: 'BBC 10 Pieces Connect It' for inspiration.

Go on a virtual tour of The Lowry Theatre.

<https://thelowry.com/before-your-visit/>

Create a Harp from a cardboard box and elastic bands.

Create a piece of art work inspired by listening to a piece of music.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p0282x1z>

The Royal Opera House has lots of free activities to keep you busy.

<https://learning-platform.roh.org.uk/beginners-call/>

Watch a MAPAS live concert with your parents, 7pm every Friday night on Facebook.

www.facebook.com/SalfordMAPAS

What is your favourite song? Could you learn to sing it and perform it to your family?

Explore the instruments of the orchestra through this exiting interactive website.

<https://msolearn.com.au>

Have a listen to a different style of music such as jazz.

<https://www.jazzradio.com/#popular>